PRIVACY NOTICE

Effective from 1 January 2021

National VET Data Policy Privacy Notice

Australian International Institute of Technology is committed to ensuring the privacy of all students, past and present, and employees.

As outlined in the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) this privacy notice and statement outlines Australian International Institute of Technology approach to the collection, use, storage, disclosure of and access to personal information and data in relation to the personal privacy of past and present students.

Why we collect your personal information

As a registered training organisation (RTO) Australian International Institute of Technology collect your personal information so we can process and manage your enrolment in a vocational education and training (VET) course with us.

How we use your personal information

Australian International Institute of Technology use your personal information to enable us to deliver VET courses to you, and otherwise, as needed, to comply with our obligations as an RTO.

How we disclose your personal information

Australian International Institute of Technology are required by law (under the National Vocational Education and Training Regulator Act 2011 (Cth) (NVETR Act)) to disclose the personal information we collect about you to the National VET Data Collection kept by the National Centre for Vocational Education Research Ltd (NCVER).

The NCVER is responsible for collecting, managing, analysing and communicating research and statistics about the Australian VET sector.

We are also authorised by law (under the NVETR Act) to disclose your personal information to the relevant state or territory training authority.

How the NCVER and other bodies handle your personal information

The NCVER will collect, hold, use and disclose your personal information in accordance with the law, including the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) (Privacy Act) and the NVETR Act. Your personal information may be used and disclosed by NCVER for purposes that include populating authenticated VET transcripts; administration of VET; facilitation of statistics and research relating to education, including surveys and data linkage; and understanding the VET market.

The NCVER is authorised to disclose information to the Australian Government Department of Education, Skills and Employment (DESE), Commonwealth authorities, State and Territory authorities (other than registered training organisations) that deal with matters relating to VET and VET regulators for the purposes of those bodies, including to enable:

- Administration of VET, including program administration, regulation, monitoring and evaluation
- Facilitation of statistics and research relating to education, including surveys and data linkage
- Understanding how the VET market operates, for policy, workforce planning and consumer information.

The NCVER may also disclose personal information to persons engaged by NCVER to conduct research on NCVER's behalf.

The NCVER does not intend to disclose your personal information to any overseas recipients.

For more information about how the NCVER will handle your personal information please refer to the NCVER's Privacy Policy at https://www.ncver.edu.au/privacy.

If you would like to seek access to or correct your information, in the first instance, please contact Australian International Institute of Technology using the contact details listed below.

DESE is authorised by law, including the Privacy Act and the NVETR Act, to collect, use and disclose your personal information to fulfil specified functions and activities.

For more information about how the DESE will handle your personal information, please refer to the DESE VET Privacy Notice at https://www.dese.gov.au/national-vet-data/vet-privacy-notice. If you require a copy of the National Vet Data Policy 2020, please request a hard or digital copy from our Corporate Head Office at Level 09, Suite 25, 401 Docklands Drive, Docklands, Melbourne, Victoria, 3008, Australia.

Surveys

You may receive a student survey which may be run by a government department or an NCVER employee, agent, third-party contractor or another authorised agency. Please note you may opt out of the survey at the time of being contacted.
